

RTÉ Reflecting The Rising - learn more about Irish history with lectures and talks by IRC former and current award holders on Easter Monday, 28th March 2016 at different locations throughout Dublin.

Name	Title of Talk	Time	Location
John Borgonovo (IRC alumnus)	The "Cork comedy" and the Rising that Wasn't: Easter 1916 in Rebel Cork / Thomas Kent	14.00 -16.00	Collins Barracks, National Museum of Ireland
	World War I and the Rising: Irish Society and Politics During 'the War to End All Wars' / George V's view of Ireland and reactions to the Rising	11.00-13.00	St. Michan's Church, Church Street
Lindsay Earner-Byrne (IRC alumnus)	Birth, Life and Death in 1916	11.00-13.00	Mansion House
Justin Carville (IRC alumnus)	Reflections on Photography and History 1916	Gallery of Photography	15.00-16.00
Maire Coleman (IRC alumnus)	British Troops in Dublin during Easter Week / 1916 in the Midlands / The Cricket Bat that Died for Ireland	11.00 -13.00	Collins Barracks, National Museum of Ireland
Diarmaid Ferriter (IRC alumnus)	Remembering 1916 / Remembering Revolution - How should the State commemorate a violent past?	15.00-18.00	Mansion House
John Gibney (IRC alumnus)	"Brave and young Sean Heuston, who died for truth and right" / Con Colbert – The Man & The Myths	13.30-15.00	Four Courts
	A History of the Easter Rising in 5 Objects	15.30 – 16.00	DIT Aungier Street
	Dublin, Easter 1916: What Was it Like?	17.00-18.00	Trinity College Dublin
Lisa Godson (IRC awardee)	The Rising through Objects: The Material Culture of the Easter Rising	14.30-15.30	Royal Irish Academy
Marnie Hay (IRC alumnus)	Staging a Boy Republic: Patrick Pearse and the Boys of St Enda's / Scouting for	13.30-15.00	DIT Aungier Street

	Rebels: Na Fianna Éireann and the 1916 Rising
John Horne (IRC awardee)	World War One and the Rising / A War Within A War? How the First World War Influenced the Easter Rising	14.00 – 16.00	Trinity College Dublin
Heather Jones (IRC alumnus)	World War I and the Rising: Irish Society and Politics During ‘the War to End All Wars’ / George V’s view of Ireland and reactions to the Rising	11.00-13.00	St. Michan’s Church, Church Street
	World War One and the Rising / A War Within A War? How the First World War Influenced the Easter Rising	14.00-16.00	Trinity College Dublin
Margaret Kelleher (IRC alumnus)	Jumping into the GPO: “How women entered male space in 1916” / Women, Culture & The Rising / Women, Nationalism and Politics after the Easter Rising	11.00-13.30	DIT Aungier Street
Declan Kiberd (IRC alumnus)	A Poet’s Revolt / The Rising: One Hundred Years After / Choral Music	15.00-17.00	St. Michan’s Church, Church Street
Conor Kostick (IRC alumnus)	“I Did My Best”: Edward Daly and the Four Courts Battle / Miceál Ua hAnnracáin – Novelist and Quartermaster	15.30-17.00	Four Courts
Laura McAtackney (IRC alumnus)	Legion of the Excluded: What the 1916 Rebels Wore / Kilmainham Gaol Graffiti	11.00-12.30	Royal Irish Academy
Fearghal McGarry (IRC alumnus)	Speaking Forever: The Abbey Rebels / Representing the Rising: The Visual Arts in 1916	15.00-16.30	Gresham Hotel
Claire McGing (IRC alumnus)	Jumping into the GPO: “How women entered male space in 1916” / Women, Culture & The Rising / Women, Nationalism and Politics after the Easter Rising	11.00-13.30	DIT Aungier Street

Conor Morrissey (IRC awardee)	Protestant Rebels in 1916	15.15 -16.00	Trinity College Dublin
Eve Morrison (IRC alumnus)	Voicing 1916: Personal Testimonies of the Easter Rising / Jesuit involvement and reaction to the 1916 Rising: Eyewitness Diary	13.00-15.00	National Library of Ireland
Conor Mulvagh (IRC alumnus)	Reassessing the military achievements of the 1916 Rebels	14.00	Collins Barracks, National Museum of Ireland
	Reacting to the Rising: British government and Irish Rebellion	17.00-17.45	Four Courts
Eunan O’Halpin (IRC alumnus)	Beyond Ireland’s Shores / Intelligence & The Rising	11.00-12.30	Trinity College Dublin
	“How My Suffragette Grandmother Became an Enthusiast for Revolutionary Nationalism, and other Revolutionary Relatives”	13.00-14.00
	Who Fears to Speak of 1916?	17.00-18.00
Jacinta Prunty (IRC awardee)	Would Home Rule have delivered the same? / Closest to the Action in 1916: Dubliners Speak Up	11.00-12.30	Four Courts
Ciarán Reilly (IRC alumnus)	From a Whisper to a Roar: Monaghan, the 1916 Rising and its commemoration in 1966/ ‘It started with a bang’: 1916 and Edenderry – a Midlands Perspective	11.00-13.00	DIT Aungier Street

Kevin Rockett (IRC alumnus)	Going to the Pictures / Film and the Irish Revolution	11.00 – 12.30	Trinity College Dublin
Susan Schreibman (IRC awardee)	Letters of 1916: Ordinary Lives, Extraordinary Times	17.00-18.00	Royal Irish Academy
Fionnuala Walsh (IRC awardee)	Dublin Families Surviving the Rising / Rural Radicalisation: Farm Labourers in Revolt / Looting, Law and Order During the 1916 Rising	11.00 – 12.30	Trinity College Dublin