

Ulysses 2018
Frequently Asked Questions
Version 1 – 17 August 2018

Similar questions have been grouped under the following headings:

1. Eligibility
2. Applying to the programme
3. Conditions of award

1. Eligibility

New Can masters students be part of the research team?

New Yes, students studying for a research master's can be included as part of the team. Applicants should submit a CV (one page maximum) for each of the team members referenced in the application.

New Can team participants traveling to Ireland be based at a different French institution from the one of the Lead French Applicant?

New This is permitted. Funds will be awarded to the project leader's host institution. The project leader, together with their host institution, will be responsible for distributing funds to the other members of the research team.

New Can I just check that Ulysses is open to postgrad research students - and also to current IRCs?

New Can PhD students apply for the Ulysses awards?

New The Ulysses scheme is open to doctoral research students.

New Could you confirm if the Ulysses programme is open to projects in the social and political sciences?

New The Ulysses scheme facilitates the exchange of innovative ideas and approaches between Irish- and French-based researchers across all disciplines.

2. Applying to the programme

New How many applications typically received per call?

New Stats on the national success rate of the Ulysses scheme in recent years?

New In 2017, a total of 68 applications were received and 16 awards were made. The success rate was therefore 24%. These numbers are representative of previous years.

3. Conditions of award