

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 2018

RESEARCHING 100
YEARS OF SUFFRAGE
AND A CENTURY OF CHANGE

Sally Anne Corcoran, NUIG

Exploring the impact of women on the protection of human rights in peacekeeping

Katherine O'Donnell & Laura McAtackney, UCD

Investigating women's crucial involvement in the suffrage, nationalist & workers' movements of the early 20th century

Fionnuala Walsh, UCD

Researching the long-term impact of the role of Irish women in the First World War

Lorna O'Hara, MU

Working to understand the strategies of 21st century feminist groups to counter
political, social and physical violence

Eglė Kačkutė, MU

Exploring how literary narratives of migrant mothers contribute to a more cohesive culturally diverse environment

Antonia Hart, TCD

Examining Irish women's entrepreneurial and business activities in the years between the Famine and the foundation of the State

IRISH RESEARCH COUNCIL
An Chomhairle um Thaighde in Éirinn