2. Purpose of the Guide for Applicants

This guide provides practical information to potential applicants in preparing and submitting an application for the IRC-SPRINT Networking Grant. In addition, it provides a general overview of the Irish Research Council assessment process.

The IRC-SPRINT is governed by the Terms and Conditions underlying the award. The contents of this guide are for general information purposes and the assistance of applicants. In the event of any discrepancy arising between this guide and the Terms and Conditions, the latter will prevail.

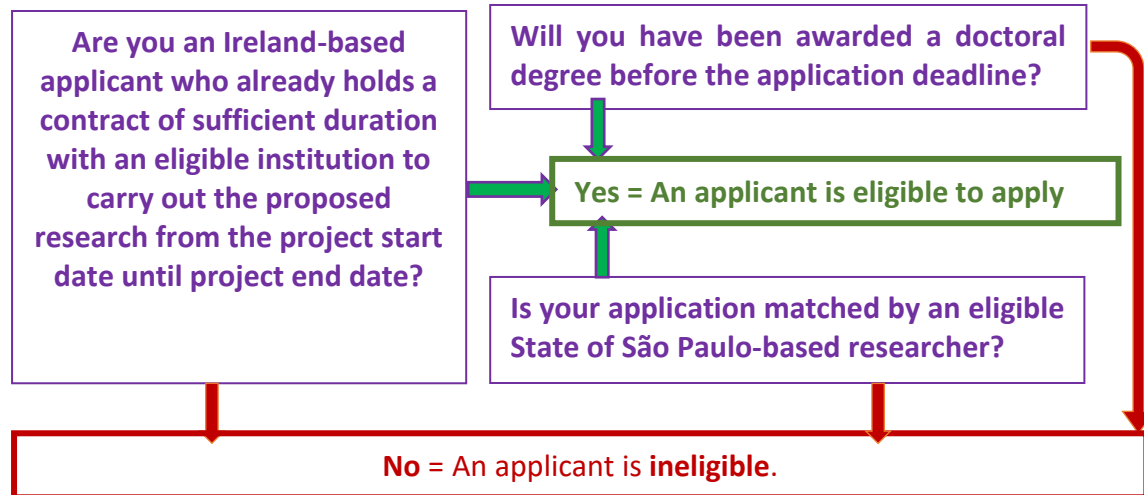

Accordingly, applicants are strongly recommended to familiarise themselves FULLY with the Terms & Conditions, and to read carefully any Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ), before completing and submitting applications.

The Council reserves the right to revise this Guide for Applicants.

3. Eligibility check

All applicants should check they are eligible to apply by carefully studying the 'Section 5-Eligibility' of the IRC-SPRINT Terms & Conditions.

3.1. IRC-SPRINT Scheme Eligibility Flowchart

4. Using the OLS (Online System)

4.1. Registering as an applicant for the first time

4.3. Editing your profile and accessing the Application page

You will see that there are two buttons on the right-hand side of your 'Profile' section. The button that looks like an eye and says 'View' can be used to view the details you have entered. The button that looks like a pencil and says 'Edit' can be used to edit your profile.

When you are ready, you can begin to work on your application.

Click on the box that says '+ Get Started'.

4.4. Navigating the IRC-SPRINT Application and Submission page:

You will see a page that outlines the steps of the IRC-SPRINT application process.

Similar to your 'Profile' on the previous page, you can use the 'View' and 'Edit' buttons (which appear on the right-hand side of the section) to either preview or to make edits to your application.

In the section titled 'Submission', you will be able to view how many days are remaining to submit your application before the applicant deadline.

It also contains the 'Submit' button, which will remain inactive and 'grey' until all required fields of the application have been completed.

Save

As you progress through your application, you will see two buttons at the bottom-right of each individual section: one labelled 'Save Draft' and the other labelled 'Save'. The 'Save Draft' button is used to save that section of your application while allowing you to remain on that page.

Use the 'Save Draft' button if you have not input information/answered all required fields. Once you see the green 'Saved' message next to the 'Save Draft' button, you can navigate back to the previous screens by clicking the blue link stating 'IRC-SPRINT Networking Grant' at the top of the page.

The 'Save' button is used to save your application and return you to the 'Application' section. It may only be selected successfully if all required fields contain data/are answered.

The form can be saved as draft and edited as many times as necessary before the submission deadline.

Once the form is complete, 'Save' (the blue button) the information and the form will be ready for submission.

4.5. Submitting your Application

When you have completed all required fields and saved your application, you will be taken back to the IRC-SPRINT Application page. The message on the left-hand side of the 'View' and 'Edit' buttons will now say 'Complete' in green. The 'Submit' button on the right-hand side of the box titled 'Submission' will now be green, indicating you can now submit your application.

The screenshot displays the IRC-SPRINT application interface. At the top, the logos for the IRISH RESEARCH COUNCIL and FAPESP are visible. The breadcrumb trail shows 'IRC-SPRINT Networking Grant > SPR/2020/16833890'. A 'Logout' button is in the top right corner. Below the breadcrumb, a message states: 'The newest steps will always be first. You can view your previous steps by clicking the "View" button. When you have completed all steps, it will no longer state "Action Required" but "Complete". The "Submit" button will turn green, which indicates that you can now submit.'

The main content area is titled 'IRC-SPRINT' and contains an 'Application Form' section. The status of the form is 'Complete', indicated by a green checkmark icon and the word 'Complete' in green. A purple arrow points to this status. To the right of the status are 'View' and 'Edit' buttons. Below the 'Application Form' section is a 'Submission' section. It contains the text: 'There are 102 days remaining to submit this.' and a green 'Submit' button. A purple arrow points to this button. Below the 'Submission' section, there are instructions: 'When ready for submission, the "Submit" button will become green and clickable. The submission is not fully submitted until you click the green [Submit] button. Once you click "Submit" the application will no longer be editable.'

Your application is not fully submitted until you click the green 'Submit' button.

Once you click 'Submit', the application will no longer be editable. However, you may view your application at any time by clicking on the 'View' button.

Once you submit your application, you will see the submission confirmation 'This has been submitted' where the button 'Submit' was. This means your application has been submitted successfully. At this stage, the Research Office of your selected HEI/RPO will be notified of the submission of your application to the IRC-SPRINT Scheme.

The screenshot shows the IRC-SPRINT application submission confirmation page. At the top, there are logos for the IRISH RESEARCH COUNCIL (An Chomhairle um Thaighde in Eirinn) and FAPESP (SÃO PAULO RESEARCH FOUNDATION). A 'Logout' button is visible in the top right corner. The main content area displays the application ID 'SPR/2020/16833890' and provides instructions: 'The newest steps will always be first. You can view your previous steps by clicking the "View" button. When you have completed all steps, it will no longer state "Action Required" but "Complete". The "Submit" button will turn green, which indicates that you can now submit.'

The application form section shows 'Application Form' with 'View' and 'Edit' buttons. Below this, there are instructions: 'If you have not started, please click the "Edit" button to the right.', 'If you have already started, please click the "Edit" button to the right.', and 'If you have completed please click the "View" button to the right.'

The submission section shows 'Submission' with a green checkmark and the text 'This has been submitted.' A purple arrow points to this confirmation message.

Please note that applications received after the submission deadline will not be considered and will not progress to the next stage of endorsement or assessment.

Click the 'Logout' button at the top-right of the screen to log out and leave the website.

5. Assessment Process

Following the deadline for submission, all applications will be checked for eligibility. Applications deemed eligible by the Council will be assigned to an independent peer review panel. Those found ineligible will not proceed to the assessment phase. For more in-depth information, please refer to 'Article 9 – Assessment Process' in the IRC-SPRINT Terms and Conditions.

The matching application submitted by the State of São Paulo-based researcher will be processed, assessed and ranked in accordance with FAPESP's own procedures. Only the proposals selected by both Agencies will be funded.

6. Notification and feedback

Once the assessment process is complete, the results will be announced on the FAPESP (www.fapesp.br) and the Irish Research Council (www.research.ie) websites and by means of email communication with applicants. For reasons of transparency and fairness to all applicants, the Irish Research Council will not enter written or telephone correspondence with any individual about the assessment process or their eligibility to apply.

If you have a technical issue regarding use of the online system, please read these guidelines and the FAQ document available on our website. If your issue cannot be addressed through either of these mechanisms, only then should you email system@research.ie with an outline of your technical issue.

For any technical query, please include:

- > your project ID;
- > the browser you are using;
- > and, if appropriate, a screenshot of any error messages.

Feedback will not be provided to applicants under this scheme (qualitative or numerical). Please note that this decision is final and that no correspondence will be undertaken in relation to individual assessments or scoring.
